

CIDEEFF Working Papers

Call for Papers

We are pleased to announce that the CIDEEFF is interested in fostering collaboration and mentoring opportunities for emerging academics and professionals who are interested in research on national, European, and international economic, fiscal and tax law.

We are offering graduate students (students enrolled in Masters' or PhD programmes), early career professionals, and academics, who are studying or working in these fields an opportunity to present and diffuse their ongoing research.

In this regard, we are requesting submission of working papers on the following topics:

- Sustainable Finance: between private and public solutions
- Challenges raised by the digital economy for liberal democracies and International Justice
- The European response to crisis (sovereign-debt crisis; pandemic crisis)
- Inequalities and budgetary: fiscal and social implications
- Globalization (Economic): causes and effect
- Global Public Procurement
- Portuguese Case-Law in Competition
- IBFD Global tax Treaty Commentaries
- Portuguese Case-Law on Double Tax Treaties

They will be submitted to a blind peer-review and, if accepted, published as part of our WP series or included in a thematic publication. In any case, publication will be openly accessible on our website.

How and when to submit:

Please submit your working paper, including a short bio (no more of 300 words) by 11:59 pm GMT on 1 June 2022, at cideeff@fd.ulisboa.pt.

Decisions about selected working papers will be revealed on 31 July 2022.

HOUSE STYLE

Letter font: Times New Toman, 12

Paragraph: 1,5 between lines.

Dates: for dates use European Style

Numbers: Use numerals for: units of time (or any other measure) in non-technical text, numbers greater than ninety-nine, dates and times, statistics (including decimals, percentages (15%), ratios, ages of people, monetary figures), numbers in a series (5, 10, and 250 years), number spans (2-4; 204-209).

Abbreviations: To introduce a short reference, use the entire name followed by the abbreviation in parentheses the first time the name is used.

Citation Style:

- The full citation to a treatise, book or other nonperiodic work: Author, Title, Editor [if any], Translator [if any], Edition [if any], Publisher, Date, Pinpoint page.
- Citations to articles in journals, law reviews, newspapers, newsletters, and other periodicals: Author, Title, Volume number, Periodical abbreviation, date, initial page, Pinpoint page.
- A full citation to an internet site: Author or Owner, Title, URL (Access or update information), the exact date of the search.
- Full citation for a case: Case Name, Reporter volume, Reporter abbreviation, Initial page, Pinpoint page (Court abbreviation Date), Subsequent history citation [if any].
- International legal material: Title, Pinpoint reference, Exact date, Source.
- Short References: The first time you cite a source, use the full citation in the footnote. Subsequent references use: Author's Last Name (or, if not available, Title), supra n. Note Number, at Pinpoint reference.