

THE LISBON INTERNATIONAL & EUROPEAN TAX LAW SEMINARS

Call for Papers

Call for papers on international and European tax law and policy topics, broadly construed. This call is dedicated to early career researchers, defined as researchers who have not yet completed their PhDs, or those who having completed their PhD, do not yet hold a permanent (tenured) position.

If you are interested in presenting at the Workshop, please send the following to ideff.lisbon.tax.seminars@gmail.com:

- Your name, title, and affiliation.
- The paper title and an abstract of no more than 1,000 words.
- Whether or not you already have a draft of the paper. (We expect to circulate a draft of each paper—at least 10 pages—a week in advance of each talk.)
- Whether or not the paper has been accepted for publication.

Five speakers and five discussants will be selected to present live, at the University of Lisbon, in late June/early July 2023. Speakers will be given 20 minutes to present their papers, followed by 30 minutes of questions and discussions led by the discussant. The Seminar will be opened by an invited Keynote Speaker, to be announced in due course. The flight costs for speakers and discussants will be covered by CIDEEFF up to 200€. The papers will also be available on our website, with open access, as part of the working paper series entitled "Lisbon Seminars on European & International Taxation".

This call is now open, and will close on 28 February, 2023, at midnight CET. Applicants will be informed of the results on 20 March, and a full programme will be made available at the beginning of March. If you have questions, feel free to email us at ideff.lisbon.tax.seminars@gmail.com.
