CIDEEFF
Centro de Investigação
de Direito Europeu,
Económico, Financeiro
e Fiscal

CIDEEFF Working Papers

Call for Papers

We are pleased to announce that the CIDEEFF is interested in fostering collaboration and mentoring opportunities for emerging academics and professionals who are interested in research on national, European, and international economic, fiscal and tax law.
We are offering graduate students (students enrolled in Masters' or PhD programmes), early career professionals, and academics, who are studying or working in these fields an opportunity to present and diffuse their ongoing research.

In this regard, we are requesting submission of working papers on the following topics:

1. Tax Governance
2. Tax Litigation
3. Citizenship and Taxes
4. Digital Taxes
5. Taxes and Inequility
6. Competition and Regulation
7. International Economic Law
8. International Oganizations
9. Development and Financing
10. Law & Economics
11. Sustainable Growth
12. Economic, Fiscal, Monetary Governance and the Future of the European Union

They will be submitted to a blind peer-review and, if accepted, published as part of our WP series or included in a thematic publication. In any case, publication will be openly accessible on our website. For a submission to be accepted, all authors must likewise complete the CIDEEFF Declaration on the Use of AI.

CIDEEFF
Centro de Investigação de Direito Europeu, Económico, Financeiro e Fiscal

How and when to submit:

Please submit your working paper, including a short bio (no more of 300 words), at cideeff@fd.ulisboa.pt.

HOUSE STYLE

Letter font: Times New Toman, 12

Paragraph: 1,5 between lines.

Dates: for dates use European Style

Numbers: Use numerals for: units of time (or any other measure) in non-technical text, numbers greater than ninety-nine, dates and times, statistics (including decimals, percentages (15%), ratios, ages of people, monetary figures), numbers in a series (5, 10, and 250 years), number spans (2-4; 204-209).

Abbreviations: To introduce a short reference, use the entire name followed by the abbreviation in parentheses the first time the name is used.

Citation Style:

- The full citation to a treatise, book or other nonperiodic work: Author, Title, Editor [if any], Translator [if any], Edition [if any], Publisher, Date, Pinpoint page.
- Citations to articles in journals, law reviews, newspapers, newsletters, and other periodicals: Author, Title, Volume number, Periodical abbreviation, date, initial page, Pinpoint page.
- A full citation to an internet site: Author or Owner, Title, URL (Access or update information), the exact date of the search.
- Full citation for a case: Case Name, Reporter volume, Reporter abbreviation, Initial page, Pinpoint page (Court abbreviation Date), Subsequent history citation [if any].
- International legal material: Title, Pinpoint reference, Exact date, Source.

- Short References: The first time you cite a source, use the full citation in the footnote. Subsequent references use: Author's Last Name (or, if not available, Title), supra n. Note Number, at Pinpoint reference.